

COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Economic Impact

For Every $1,00 of Local Tax Support Received, Dodge City Community College Returned $4.30 to the Ford County Economy.

DODGE CITY COMMUNITY COLLEGE'S LOCAL ECONOMIC IMPACT:

Total Impact	$14.3 million
Less Taxes Paid	$ 2.7 million
Equals Net Economic Impact	$11.6 million

COMPONENTS OF ECONOMIC IMPACT:

DCCC Expenditures	$ 4.5 million
Plus Employee Expenditures	$ 1.2 million
Plus Student Expenditures
Plus Indirect Economic Impact*
Equals Total	$ 14.3 million

* Indirect Economic Impact: Additional local purchases of goods and services by DCCC expenditures.

DODGE CITY COMMUNITY COLLEGE'S ECONOMIC IMPACT ON THE STATE OF KANSAS:

COMPONENTS OF ECONOMIC IMPACT:

DCCC Expenditures	$ 4.8 million
Plus Employee Expenditures	$ 1.4 million
Plus Student Expenditures
Plus Indirect Economic Impact*	$ 9.6 million
Equals Total	$ 18.0 million

^{*} Indirect Economic Impact: Additional local purchases of goods and services by DCCC expenditures.

DCCC

is tightening its financial belt while continuing the 54 year tradition of quality, affordable education.

Based on Information from a Research Report Sponsored by The Kansas Council of Community College Presidents, January, 1985, and Office of Instutional Research, Johnson County Community College, and current Ford County and State of Kansas Tax Expenditures, 1988

A Bountiful Economic Harvest From Your Tax Investment In

COMMUNITY COLLEGE

2501 North 14th Avenue • Dodge City, Kansas 67801-2399 (316) 225-1321 or toll-free in Kansas: 1-800-742-9519